

LOVE

Love, irresistible power
Whereupon you and me
Our life have built, togetherness
Long time ago.

Love, ivygreen and fruitful tree
That now provides us with a child
Or soon will do
Love, noble virtue
That soon will make us one in three

Love, powerful stream of feelings
With alchemy indestructible
Surround us
Invisible fortress of golden riches

Let's not destroy it !
Let's hold on fast to it !
Let it be the cornerstone of our castle!
Let it be source, fountain inexhaustible !
Of our quenchless thirst !

Let love be the first word of our sensuous lips!
Let love be the ceaseless flow of our feelings !
Let love be the strength of our heart !
Let love be the vital breath of our pure souls !
Let love be the food of our sublime thoughts !
Let love be the light eternal of our nights !
Let love be !
